

My diary

Date: 21st September, 2017

Weather: sunny and hot

Yesterday, I went out for a picnic with Joey. We ate sandwiches and drank some apple juice. We played hide and seek.

Suddenly, we saw a lot of apples on a tree. Then we climbed up the tree but we saw a beehive. We threw a stone at the beehive. A lot of bees flew towards us. We were stung.

In the end, I ran home with Joey. When mum saw us, she said, "You better stay away from Joey." I replied, "Sorry, mum, I can't do that. We're good friends. I promise it won't happen again."
