

St. Peter's Catholic Primary School

Empowering students by giving them the confidence and tools they need to take ownership of their learning. Providing students with a positive classroom environment to nurture intellectual curiosity.

Simplicity Passion Commitment Probity Self-reflection

Seamless Steps

Ho! Ho!
Merry Christmas!

We're making lanterns.

Santa, do you have any presents for me?

Tired but happy after the picnic.

Celebrating 100 days of primary school!

The parent-child race is a great way to bond.

Sports keep us healthy and happy!

Having fun at the school picnic.

Our P1 students benefit from a bilingual environment with two co-class teachers: a NET and a local teacher.

We host an array of exciting events for P1 students and their families such as our 100-Day Celebration, Sports Day, School Picnic and Christmas Party. Together, we create unforgettable memories!

Explore and Enjoy

Students can join exciting English activities with our NETs such as morning storytelling, English Assemblies, Campus TV, the English Ambassador Team, singing with Temi the Robot and English Fun Day.

Start the day with English morning assembly.

Join us for story time before school.

Welcome to our show.

Our proud English Ambassador team.

We love singing with Temi the Robot.

English Fun Day is full of great games.

ABC

And don't forget weekly games in the hall! There are so many to choose from!

Besides, we have Friday ECA, Saturday English Classes and the Solo Verse Speaking Contest.

There are plenty of fun activities on Fridays.

Lunch games in the hall are good fun.

Fun games during Saturday English classes.

So proud to be in the Solo Verse Speaking Contest..

It's great to learn through play.

iPads make phonics easy.

Building a Foundation for Tomorrow

Reading along with the NETs improves our pronunciation and comprehension.

Students acquire the skills they need to become lifelong readers by using the PLP-R/W programme. With PLP-R/W, students build core language skills through phonics, storytelling, shared reading, and guided writing in an immersive environment.

We learn to express ourselves through writing.

I created a robot! Now, let me tell you all about it.

Phonics is easy, with a bit of practice!

Building Confidence Through Speaking

Through Show and Tell, students build confidence while equipping themselves with invaluable presentation and interview skills.

The classroom environment is supportive and encouraging which allows students to focus on improving their presentation skills.

I am relaxed and confident.

I speak loudly and clearly.

I got this!

Show and Tell classes are led by our NETs who provide constructive advice and support to ensure students can equip themselves with this valuable skill.

Discover the Excitement!

Let's guess the animals in the story.

I can match the shapes.

This game is great!

At St. Peter's, kindergarten students can dive into our vibrant school life! Join us for the STREAM Carnival, St. Peter's Game Day, K2 Open Day each spring and various events at local kindergartens.

Do you know this word?

Such a funny story!

I want to make a bird!

What a beautiful butterfly!

Our Experiencing P.1 Programme in December and P.1 Orientation in August also give students a taste of being a P.1 student in our school.

Pick me!

We're looking forward to P.1.

We can sing together.

Preparing for Secondary School Success

To boost confidence and creativity, students can join our English Musical Drama Team. They even entered the 2025 Hong Kong Drama Festival.

Acting helps us gain confidence.

It's the finale!

I feel so proud being on stage.

What do you think of our acting?

Time to dance.

Stop right now!

Meanwhile, we empower students with vital skills such as presenting with PowerPoint and using proper references when writing. Additionally, students can attend an AI Writing Workshop preparing them for secondary school and beyond!

AI is the key to the future.

Sharing facts about China!

Cherishing our Heritage

Maltose Crackers
A traditional Chinese snack

It's a traditional Hong Kong snack.

Chinese buildings are so beautiful!

Sharing our research about China.

They're so good!

Writing down our questions for research.

There are so many different cooking methods.

Learning to make maltose crackers.

We're off to Chengdu!

In the Treasured China Programme, our P.5 students engage in research while exploring their heritage through hands-on experiences.

They delight in making traditional snacks, delving into the history of Apleichau and even have the incredible opportunity to visit Chengdu to see their learning come to life.

English Immersion: New Zealand

We made a lot of friends!

We saw so many animals!

It's time for game night with our host family.

Our P.5 and P.6 students have the exciting opportunity to practise their English in a real-world setting through a trip to New Zealand. They stay with host families and attend local schools, immersing themselves in the vibrant culture while forming lifelong friendships.

A wonderful way to bond with our classmates.

Did you know that New Zealand had dinosaurs?

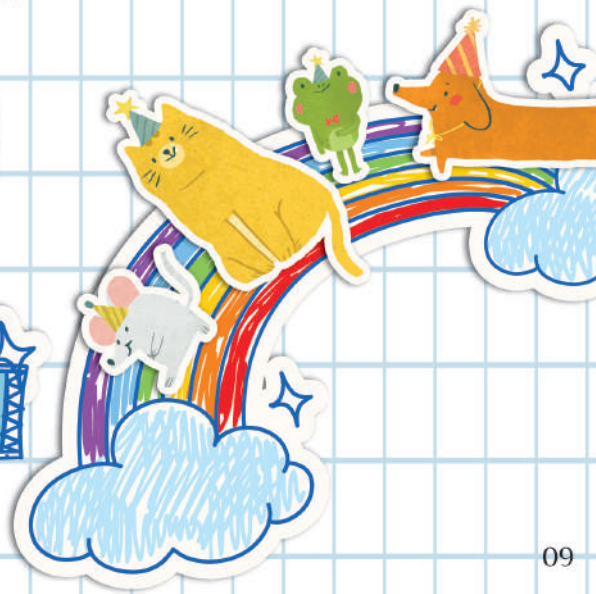

The teachers in New Zealand were so nice.

The scenery was just like a painting.

Trying the school lunch in New Zealand.

Celebrating Student Talent

St. Peter's Catholic Primary School

Book 1A Ch.4

Name: Chu Hiu Ching Dora Class: P.1 (B)

Date: 14th Nov, 2025

Draw the stationery you and your friend / brother / sister have.

Me	Haley
Stick a photo or draw.	Stick a photo or draw.

Write about the stationery we have.

My name is Dora.

I have four pencils.

I have two erasers.

I have a pencil case.

This is my friend / brother / sister Haley.

He / She has a pencil case.

He / She has two pencils.

He / She has an eraser.

1B

Chu Hiu Ching, Dora

St. Peter's Catholic Primary School

Book 1A Ch.4

Name: Chan Yuet Hei Hayley Class: P.1 (A)

Date: 11th Nov, 2025

Draw the stationery you and your friend / brother / sister have.

Me	Aiden
Stick a photo or draw.	Stick a photo or draw.

Write about the stationery we have.

My name is Hayley.

I have five pencils.

I have one pencil case.

I have four erasers.

This is my friend / brother / sister Aiden.

He / She has two rulers.

He / She has seven pencils.

He / She has three erasers.

1A

Chan Yuet Hei, Hayley

Name: Cho Yuet Long Haris (3) Class: P.2 Date: 19th Sep, 2025

Design your new school floor plan. Draw pictures and write the names of the rooms. Then show it to the class.

My Haris School

5F	The fifth floor.
4F	The fourth floor.
3F	The third floor.
2F	The second floor.
1F	The first floor.
GF	The ground floor.

The fun zone is on the fourth floor.

The garden is on the third floor.

The classrooms are on the second floor.

The principal's office is on the first floor.

The computer room is on the ground floor.

2C

Cho Yuet Long, Haris

On the fourth floor,

Rex sees some funny mirrors. Rex looks in them. Rex sees flying dolphin.

The Magic Science Museum

Author and Illustrator

So Tsz Kwai Kacey

(2B) (14)

2B

So Tsz Kwai, Kacey

At the fast food shop

Today is Monday. The weather is hot and sunny. Cindy and her brother Jim go to a fast food shop because they are hungry.

Cindy walks to the cashier to order some food. "Can I have a box of chicken wings and two cups of cola, please?" asks Cindy. "Sure. They are fifty-five dollars," answers the cashier. Then, Cindy pays for the food.

When the food is ready, Cindy takes the food in her hand. Suddenly, a dog jumps out and tries to take Cindy's food. Cindy is shocked so she drops her food on the floor. Jim is upset because the food is on the floor. They cannot eat the food anymore.

In the end, the cashier sees what happens. She gives them a new set of food. Cindy and Jim thank the cashier. They are happy. They learn to be more careful next time.

What an unlucky day!

By Chan Chun Ho, Chun
P.3C

3C

Chan Chun Ho, Chun

A Thief in the Market

In the morning, Peter and his mum go to Tai Tai Market. They want to buy some apples and oranges so they go to the fruit stall on the second floor.

Then they choose the apples and oranges. Suddenly, a rude-looking man puts his hand into a woman's handbag. He takes her purse quietly.

Peter sees it. He calls the police at once. The police come quickly and catch the thief. The woman thanks Peter for his help. "Thank you!" says the woman.

Peter is over the moon. He learns to be brave and helpful.

by Cheung Tsz Ching, Winnie (3B)

3B

Cheung Tsz Ching, Winnie

My friend Venus

Venus is my best friend. She is a girl. She is eight years old and her birthday is on 11th November. She lives with her parents in South Horizons. We look so different. Venus is tall. She is as tall as a tree. She has long straight hair. Her mouth is as small as a cherry.

We have many hobbies in common. We both like playing online games. We always play online games on Mondays. We sometimes play online games together.

Venus and I study in the same school. We have a happy school life. We learn and play together. At recess, we chat in the classroom. We sometimes play board games in the playground. Venus is good at music. She is a member of the school choir. She is also an English subject leader. She helps her classmates and teachers.

I like Venus so much because she is helpful, kind and careful. I am glad to have friend like her. I know that "a friend in need is a friend indeed"!

By Leung Sum Yau Hailey
P.4C

4C

Leung Sum Yau, Hailey

Visiting a Restaurant

One day, Cathy and Sue had their lunch in a restaurant. They were over the moon because they had been waiting for this for a long time.

First, they went inside and ordered some lime soda. The waiter came and gave them the lime soda. Suddenly, Cathy shouted, "There is a fly in the lime soda!" She told the waiter. The waiter said, "Sorry!"

In the end, Cathy and Sue went away and said, "This restaurant is the worst restaurant. We won't come back next time!"

What an unforgettable day!

by Tsui Ho Chun, Isaac (4A)

4A

Tsui Ho Chun, Isaac

The naughty boy

Yesterday two naughty boys brought some balloons to school. At recess, they went to the toilet and filled the balloons with water. One boy said, "Let's play tricks on Kimmy!" "Okay!" replied the other boy. They laughed happily.

Then they went to the first floor and called Kimmy loudly. Kimmy was playing ball games in the playground. She looked up to the boys when she heard them calling her name. Suddenly, the two naughty boys threw the balloon onto Kimmy. "Splash!" the balloon exploded on the ground. The water splashed onto Kimmy and made her wet. Her friends got wet too. Kimmy was scared and her friend was shocked. The boys were as naughty as monkeys.

In the end, Kimmy's friend told the teacher what happened and the teacher found the two boys. He shouted at them angrily. "You shouldn't play tricks on other people. Do you hear clearly? You should say sorry to Kimmy!" The boys apologized to Kimmy and her friend. They learnt a lesson that they shouldn't be mean to their classmates.

What an awful day!

By Cheuk Shun Yin, Max
P.5A

5A

Cheuk Shun Yin, Max

A Hectic Day

Tom and Cindy were playing with their dog, Bobo. There were a lot of toys on the floor. Their mum was looking for a receipt when she suddenly slipped on something and fell with a loud sound. "Whose toy car is this? Tom, Cindy! Come over here!" yelled their mum in shock.

Tom and Cindy said with annoyance, "What's the matter?" Mum replied, "Tidy this up, now!" Tom and Cindy pulled a long face. Tom shouted, "You should clean it up. I want to play mobile games!" "No, you clean it up!" Cindy retorted. Then they started quarrelling. Mum scolded them once again. They finally started cleaning.

Not too long after, they started to quarrel again when Tom said he'd take a break. Cindy yelled, "Mum said YOU have to help!" Tom replied rudely, "I don't care!" Mum came back in, hot under the collar, "Clean it up together or no video games."

In the end, they finally were finished. They learned that there's no "I" in team, and they should work together to accomplish more. What a hectic day!

by Koomson, Sarina Tracy (5B)

5B

koomson, Sarina Tracy

A trip to a park

It was a warm sunny day. It was the perfect day to go to the theme park so Ken and Helen rushed to the bus stop to go to the theme park. While they were taking the bus, they chatted about what to do in the theme park. Ken asked with curiosity, "What should we do in the theme park?" Helen suggested, "How about we ride on the roller coaster and watch some shows!" Ken agreed to her suggestions. They were like a dog with two tails.

Soon, they arrived at the theme park. They rushed to the rollercoaster because they knew they had to wait in the longest queue. After a while, it was their turn. They also rode on the carousel and watched a cute bear show. They did everything they wanted to do in the theme park. They smiled with happiness when they walked out of the showroom.

Soon Helen found a teddy bear she loved. Her heart sank when she looked at the price tag. She shouted, "580 dollars?" She was shocked. She said with depression. "This teddy bear is my favourite but it is too expensive." Ken reached into his pocket and pulled out some money but it wasn't enough. He sighed, "I don't have enough money. I guess we will buy it next time." They walked away sadly. Helen streamed down tears of depression.

At last, they walked closer to the exit. Helen's hope of buying a teddy bear was gone so she continued walking away sadly. Suddenly, Helen's eyes shone with delight because she saw another teddy bear she loved. She pointed at it and told Ken, "I want that teddy bear!" When they walked over to see the price, they were shocked. "It's only 50 dollars!" Ken had exactly 50 dollars in his pocket so he bought the bear for her. She was on cloud nine.

In the end, they found an affordable bear that Helen loved. They learnt that nothing is impossible when you feel hopeless.

What a memorable experience!

By Chan Chun Yu, One
P.6B

6B

Chan Chun Yu, One

A Day at a Theme Park

Last week was a sunny warm week. Ken and Helen decide to set off for the theme park. They went on the bus and started to chat. "What will we play first when we arrive at the theme park? How about going on the rollercoaster?" Ken asked. Helen nodded with agreement.

Finally, they arrived at the theme park. They went on the rides and played on the Merry-go-round. "What do we do next?" questioned Ken. "How about watching the show about the bears?" said Helen. "Sure!" yelled Ken. They went into a big hall and started to look for a seat. The show finally started with lots of cute animals which danced and sang.

After the show, they went in a shop near the hall. There were a lot of cute stuffed toys like rabbits, turtles, cats, dogs and bears. Helen stopped in front of a shelf with a lot of teddy bears. Helen picked up one of the bears and jumped up and down with excitement. "This bear is adorable!" she shouted at the top of her voice.

Ken walked to Helen and saw what she was doing. Helen said to Ken, "Look! This bear is so cute! Let me see the price." Helen looked at the price tag and she was disappointed. "It is too expensive!" sighed Helen. Ken looked at her and suggested, "How about choosing something cheaper like a teddy bear hair clip?" Helen's eyes shone with delight and she exclaimed, "This is a good idea!" Helen put back the teddy bear and bought the hair clip instead. What an unforgettable day!

By Chu Yan Yin, Connie (6A)

6A

Chu Yan Yin, Connie